WYSA REGULATIONS

REGULATION I – THE LEAGUE

WYBA/WYSA is made up of an 18-member Board of Directors, contact information can be found at the link attached below.

<https://waxahachieyouthbaseball.org/content/456/Board-of-Directors>

WYBA/WYSA screens every coach (18 and older) with a criminal background check before coaches are assigned to coach a team. [Background checks are rechecked every 2 years]

REGULATIONS II – THE TEAMS

If a medical professional determines that a player sustains a possible concussion, the player must at minimum be removed from the game and/or practice, and in turn not return to play or practice without medical release combined with acknowledgement from parent.

WYSA stands strongly behind the safety of every player. We encourage all parents, coaches and directors to not only comply and review the information and training materials on concussions that are available at no cost on the Center of Disease Control website, via the link listed below.

- b) Batting order will remain the same unless a player is injured [the injured player is scratched from the roster]

- c) 8u-A batter shall be declared out after failing to hit a fair ball after 6 pitches or 3 missed swing strikes occur [whichever comes first] If batter fouls off 6th pitch, she continues batting until fair ball or missed pitch for strikeout.
6U – 3 balls will be pitched by the coach. If the batter fails to hit a fair ball off the coach, the batter will have 3 attempts from the tee. If the batter still fails to hit off of the tee, they will be counted out
- d) Walks are not awarded in coach pitch
- e) Hit by pitch is counted as a ball [if it is the final pitch the batter will be out]
- f) A batted ball striking the coach pitcher is considered a dead ball and is treated as a foul ball and a pitch for the batter
- g) No lead-offs or stealing is allowed in coach pitch. 8u can lead off after the pitch but cannot steal. Runners can advance at their own risk on overthrows of hit balls
- h) 6u If the ball is hit off pitcher(coach) and pitcher over throws 1st base, the batter and all runners on base can run until they stop or score or ball reaches the circle. If ball is hit off the tee and pitcher over throws the ball at 1st base, then the batter can only go to 2nd base if they choose with liability to put out but all other runners can advance until they stop or score or ball reaches the circle.
- i) 8U If the ball is over thrown to first, then the batter can progress bases until the ball is back inside the pitcher circle and/or play stoppage is called.
